

Breaking Numbers

MARCH 14 + 16

10:00 - 11:00

LIE FU

(UNIV. STRASBG)

The great mathematician Leonhard Euler had an interesting discovery: the number of ways to break a number into a sum of odd numbers is exactly the number of ways to break it into a sum of distinct numbers. We will experiment with this fact together and try to find the reason behind it!

